Nov. 25, 1901.

S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:-

In reply to yours of Nov. 20, I do not collect U.S. revenue stamps any more and sold my collection last year. I have all of the encased postage stamps you offer so do not need any of them at present.

Very truly,

Dictated. H. E. Deats

S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:-

I have yours of Oct. 21. I have been doing nothing in the line of coins or paper money for nearly a year back. I have not the time just now to get out my collections and arouse any interest. I am therefore not in the market just now for the purchase of anyt ing in that line except such as come to me locally and are brought to me.

Very truly,

H. E. Deats
